"Empowering Women from Shame to Grace to Freedom"

Marie Webber

Marie Webber is a speaker, empowerment coach, and founder of Eva Marie Workshops, where she helps women move from shame to grace to freedom. Drawing from her own journey—from a painful past marked by fear, guilt, and silence to a life grounded in faith, forgiveness, and purpose—Marie brings authenticity, compassion, and hope to every audience she serves.

For over forty years, she has been guiding women to discover their worth, heal the wounds of the past, and step confidently into the life God has for them. Through her speaking, workshops, and gatherings, Marie creates safe, faith-filled spaces where women feel seen, encouraged, and empowered to walk forward lighter, freer, and renewed.

Marie has such a beautiful and genuine way of helping every lady feel seen, valued, and truly special. She shares from her heart and has a gift for reminding women just how much they are loved by God. Marie creates a warm and welcoming space where women can grow in their faith, feel supported, and be encouraged in their journey. I'm so grateful for the way she pours into the lives of the women around her.
